Pub. Law 93-189

87 STAT. 716.

"SEC. 109. TRANSFER OF FUNDS.—Notwithstanding section 108 of this Act, whenever the President determines it to be necessary for the purposes of this chapter, not to exceed 15 per centum of the funds made available for any provision of this chapter may be transferred to, and consolidated with, the funds made available for any other provision of this chapter, and may be used for any of the purposes for which such funds may be used, except that the total in the provision for the benefit of which the transfer is made shall not be increased by more than 25 per centum of the amount of funds made available for such provision. The authority of sections 610(a) and 614(a) of this Act may not be used to transfer funds made available under this chapter for use for purposes of any other provision of this Act.

75 Stat. 442;
76 Stat. 260.
80 Stat. 805.
22 USC 2360,
2364.

"SEC. 110. COST-SHARING AND FUNDING LIMITS.—(a) No assistance shall be furnished by the United States Government to a country under sections 103 through 107 of this Act until the country provides assurances to the President, and the President is satisfied, that such country will provide at least 25 per centum of the costs of the entire program, project, or activity with respect to which such assistance is to be furnished, except that such costs borne by such country may be provided on an 'in-kind' basis.

"(b) No grant assistance shall be disbursed by the United States Government under sections 103 through 107 of this Act for a project, for a period exceeding thirty-six consecutive months, without further justification satisfactory to the Congress and efforts being made to obtain sources of financing within that country and from other foreign countries and multilateral organizations.

"SEC. 111. DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF COOPERATIVES.—In order to strengthen the participation of the urban and rural poor in their country's development, not less than $20,000,000 of the funds made available for the purposes of this chapter shall be available during the fiscal years 1974 and 1975 only for assistance in the development of cooperatives in the less developed countries which will enable and encourage greater numbers of the poor to help themselves toward a better life.

"SEC. 112. PROHIBITING POLICE TRAINING.—(a) No part of any appropriation made available to carry out this Act shall be used to conduct any police training or related program in a foreign country.

"(b) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply—

"(1) with respect to assistance rendered under section 515(c) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, as amended, or with respect to any authority of the Drug Enforcement Administration or the Federal Bureau of Investigation which relates to crimes of the nature which are unlawful under the laws of the United States; or

82 Stat. 207;
84 Stat. 1887.
42 USC 3763.

"(2) to any contract entered into prior to the date of enactment of this section with any person, organization, or agency of the United States Government to provide personnel to conduct, or assist in conducting, any such program.

Notwithstanding paragraph (2), subsection (a) shall apply to any renewal or extension of any contract referred to in such paragraph entered into on or after such date of enactment.

"SEC. 113. INTEGRATING WOMEN INTO NATIONAL ECONOMIES.—Sections 103 through 107 of this Act shall be administered so as to give particular attention to those programs, projects, and activities which tend to integrate women into the national economies of foreign countries, thus improving their status and assisting the total development effort.

"SEC. 114. LIMITING USE OF FUNDS FOR ABORTIONS.—None of the funds made available to carry out this part shall be used to pay for the performance of abortions as a method of family planning or to motivate or coerce any person to practice abortions."

The House amendment did not contain a comparable provision.
The Senate receded.

DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF COOPERATIVES

The Senate bill provided that not less than $20 million made available during fiscal years 1974 and 1975 should be available only for assistance in the development of cooperatives in less developed countries.

The House amendment did not contain a comparable provision.
The House receded.

PROHIBITING POLICE TRAINING

The Senate bill prohibited police training and related programs for any foreign country under any law except those relating to certain crimes and administered by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, or with respect to any authority of the Drug Enforcement Administration, or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The House bill did not contain a comparable provision.

The House receded with an amendment applying the prohibition to programs in a foreign country and to funds made available under the Foreign Assistance Act. The prohibition is not applicable to any contract entered into prior to the date of enactment of this act that provides personnel to conduct, or assist in conducting, any such program but it prohibits extension of those contracts. Further, it is the intent of Congress that present programs being conducted by the Agency for International Development in foreign countries should not be transferred to some other agency of the Government in order to avoid this prohibition. The new language is meant to phase out such programs financed hereunder and the objective should not be circumvented by using other funds for this purpose.

INTEGRATION OF WOMEN INTO NATIONAL ECONOMIES

The Senate bill provided that development assistance programs should be administered with particular attention to the integration of women into the national economies of foreign countries.

The House amendment did not contain a comparable provision.
The House receded.

LIMITING USE OF FUNDS FOR ABORTIONS

The Senate bill prohibited the use of funds in any manner, directly or indirectly, to pay for abortions, abortifacient drugs or devices, the promotion of the practice of abortion, or support of research to develop methods of abortion.

The House amendment did not contain a comparable provision.

The House receded with an amendment prohibiting the use of funds to pay for the performance of abortions or to motivate or coerce any person to practice abortion.

This provision is not intended to interfere with or curtail support for preventive maternal and child health and family planning services and related research which are provided on a voluntary basis and in accord-
